

BOOST INFINITE APP TERMS & CONDITIONS

You can use the Boost Infinite App to access your Boost Infinite account and communications tools. While we do our best to be as accurate and up-to-date as we can, it's possible that some product descriptions, third-party links, or other content you see on the App might be out of date, incomplete, or contain errors.

By using the App, you agree to and accept the App Terms and Conditions, and acknowledge that you understand them. We reserve the right to modify the App and the App Terms and Conditions at any time, but we'll let you know if and when they change. If you keep using the App after these changes are made, you're agreeing to the modifications made. If you don't agree with the changes, your only course of action is to stop using the App.

The App is provided "as-is" and we are not responsible for the deletion of, or failure to store, any of your communications or personalization settings. You're responsible for your access to the App, and access may involve third-party fees such as internet service provider fees or data charges.

You're responsible for any equipment necessary to access the App, such as your Phone. You and Boost Infinite agree to arbitrate any claim, controversy or dispute of any kind between you and Boost Infinite, on an individual basis (as opposed to class-wide or consolidated).

You agree to electronic invoice delivery via email and confirm that you can access your invoice online. We'll use the email address you provide to communicate with you about the App and tell you about other products and services you might like, unless you ask not to receive marketing emails. You agree to promptly provide us with an updated email address if it changes.

You agree to the use of electronic records in connection with your Boost Infinite App account, including but not limited to electronic signatures and disclosure notices, and agree that this satisfies any requirement to provide you these documents in writing. If you don't agree, don't accept these App terms and do not use the App. You can call (866) 957-7772 to (a) obtain a paper copy of any document or record for free; (b) withdraw your consent to the use of electronic records, and/or (c) update your contact information.

You may be required to register for an account on the App in order to access certain features. The Boost Infinite App is subject to Boost Infinite's Privacy Policy. If you choose to register an account on the App or you otherwise provide information on the App, you're agreeing to provide true, accurate, current and complete information about yourself and to keep that information up to date. We can suspend or terminate your account if you provide, or we have reasonable grounds to suspect you've provided any information that is false, inaccurate, outdated or incomplete, or if your account is otherwise barred, canceled, or suspended. In addition, you may forfeit and immediately lose any unused and/or unredeemed credits or benefits associated with your account.

You're responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account password and you're fully responsible for all activities that occur under your password and account. You agree to immediately notify Boost Infinite of any breach of security, including unauthorized access to or use of your account. We recommend that you exit your account at the end of each session if you use a public device. We are not liable for any loss or damage that arises from your failure to comply with these terms.

If you accessed the Boost Infinite App through a link from a third-party website, or if the App provides you with any link to a third-party site, you agree that we have no control over the content on third-party websites and agree and acknowledge that we are not liable for the product, services, content, or other materials offered on third-party sites. You agree and understand that we do not endorse or accept any responsibility for the content or use of third-party sites and it's your responsibility to ensure whatever you select are safe for your Phone and data. Any transactions you partake in with a third-party website are solely your responsibility. You release us from any damages you incur through third-party websites and agree you won't assert any claims against us arising from your use of these third-party sites.
