Personal Information We Collect

There are several ways we collect information about you.

Information you give us:

The personal information we collect includes information you give us, such as name, postal address, telephone number, email address, date of birth, government issued identification, social security number or other government identification number, demographics, activities, location information, profile picture, and personal preferences. You may give us information in a variety of ways, including when you sign up for or use Services, communicate with Customer Care or register for one of the Services.

If we have trouble processing your order, the contact information you provide is used to get in touch with you. We also use this contact information to provide you with updates regarding your current phone or service and to provide you with information about Boost Mobile promotions and special offers.

We may offer the opportunity to participate in contests, giveaways, or other similar promotions we sponsor. Except as explained otherwise in the rules for a particular contest, giveaway, or promotion, any personal information you provide will be used in accordance with this Notice.

Usage Information:

Certain types of information are collected whenever you use our Services. This includes:

- Information about your device such as the type, version of operating system, signal strength, and whether it is on and how it is functioning.
- Information about how you use the device and services available through it, such as your call and data usage and history, your location, websites you have visited, applications purchased, downloaded or used, and other similar information.

We may use systems or tools to analyze your use of our Services and other applications, along with analysis of network and device information.

We may link information we automatically collect with other personal information, such as information you give us at registration and check out.

Cookies and other technologies:

We and/or other companies we work with may use cookies, web beacons, pixels, tags, and similar technologies on or through our Services, as well as third parties' websites, platforms, and electronic communications to understand users online behavior and to collect certain information, including statistics about website and platform usage, broad demographic information, IP addresses, browser type, device type, Internet Service Provider, referring/exit pages, platform type, date/time stamp, number of clicks, and other similar information. We also may use session replay software, which collects information about your interaction with the Services, including keystrokes, mouse movements, and form field entries, and may monitor your interactions with the Services, including for our compliance verification purposes. If you use our website chat function, we collect and store information in connection with your use of that function, including personal identifiers and the content of the chat. You can access our Services even when you've disabled certain cookies, but you may not be automatically recognized upon revisiting.

Google Analytics:

We use Google Analytics and Signals in Google Analytics. This updates existing Google Analytics features (advertising reports, remarketing, cross-device reports, and reports on interests and demographics) to provide aggregated and anonymized information about you, provided you have allowed personalized ads in your Google Account. You can learn more about Google's data practices and your privacy choices by visiting google.com/policies/privacy/partners/. Google provides an opt out of Google Analytics by downloading and installing the browser add-on located at tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/.

Information from other sources:

We may obtain information about you from outside sources, including public sources, and add to it or combine it with your account information. For example, we receive information from the retailer from whom you purchased your Boost Mobile phone or device prior to initiating service with us. We also may use demographic and marketing information from third parties to help us better serve you or inform you about products or services that we think will be of interest to you.

Children's information:

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under the age of 16 without the permission of their parent or guardian. We do not knowingly sell the personal data of children under 16. We also do not knowingly share the personal data of children under 16 for advertising purposes.

How long we keep your information:

We retain personal information about you for the amount of time necessary to provide our Services and for as long as required to satisfy legal or tax requirements, for fraud prevention, or for other business purposes. If we de-identify information, we will maintain and use the information in de-identified form and not attempt to re-identify the information except as required or permitted by law.

How We Use Personal Information

We use the personal information we collect primarily for business or commercial activities, which may include using your personal information to:

- provide, operate, and maintain our Services;
- carry out billing and collection activities;
- communicate with you (e.g., to contact you for administrative purposes or to send you important updates and communications about this Notice and/or other applicable terms);
- confirm that you are receiving the level(s) of service requested and are properly billed;
- identify when changes are made to your account or services;
- tell you about products or services from Boost Mobile or others that may be of interest, including, and as permitted by law, by email, telemarketing, direct mail and wireless messages;
- understand your use of our Services in order to make improvements and personalize them;
- administer user surveys to collect your recommendations, reviews, and feedback;
- send you marketing and promotional communications, including emails about the Services and products or services of select business partners;
- deliver addressable or tailored advertising to you within the Services, via email, or through third-party websites and platforms;
- detect fraud and unauthorized reception of our Services;
- determine whether applicable policies and terms of service are being violated;
- perform statistical or qualitative research and analysis;
- maintain our “do not contact” lists;
- comply with applicable law;
- support our business operations and business transactions; and
- carry out other uses as necessary to provide our Services.

We will also use your personal information as described to you at the point of information collection or with your consent. Additionally, we will use your personal information as we believe necessary or appropriate to protect our rights, privacy, safety, property, and/or those of others.

We may aggregate, and/or de-identify information such that it does not reasonably identify you and use such information for other business and marketing purposes.

We may combine the various types of information we collect and receive from and about you, including account information, usage information, information collected offline, across other computers or devices that you may use, and information received from corporate affiliates and third-party sources. Where applicable, we will use, disclose, and protect the combined information as described in this Notice.

Personal Information We Disclose

We may disclose information we collect from and about you with others as follows:

EchoStar affiliates:

We disclose your personal information to EchoStar and EchoStar affiliates, such as AirTV, DISH, Hughes, HughesNet, and Sling TV.

Our service providers:

We disclose personal information to third parties that provide business, marketing, payment processing, or technical support services to us and/or administer activities on our behalf. Our service providers may also include professional advisors (e.g., lawyers, accountants, auditors, etc.).

Our analytics providers:

We disclose your personal information to parties that assist us in performing analytics and help us measure the effectiveness of the Services and our marketing and advertising efforts.

Payment history and credit-check:

We may share credit-related, payment history, and transactional information while checking eligibility for some of our Services.

Group account holders:

For business and government customers, family customers, and other group account holders ("Group Accounts"), the account holder will have access to certain personal information of others using the account. The account holder is the person that buys the service or product for its employees, family members, or other authorized users.

Mailing list partners:

We may disclose your name and postal address to other parties, such as charities, marketing organizations, corporate affiliates, or other businesses for "mailing list" purposes. Any such disclosure for "mailing list" purposes would be limited to your name and postal address, and the disclosure would not reveal, directly or indirectly: (i) the extent of your viewing or use of a television service or the Services; or (ii) the nature of any transactions facilitated by us.

Corporate entities for business transfers :

We may transfer your personal information if we are involved, whether in whole or in part, in a merger, sale, acquisition, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, bankruptcy, or other change of ownership or control. For example, if another entity acquires us or any of our assets, personal information we have collected may be transferred to such entity. In addition, if any bankruptcy or reorganization proceeding is brought by or against us, personal information we have collected may be considered an asset of ours and may be sold or transferred to third parties. Should such a sale or transfer occur, we will use reasonable efforts to try to require that the transferee use personal information we have collected in connection with the Services in a manner that is consistent with this Notice.

Law enforcement or other third parties for legal, compliance, and safety purposes :

We may be required by law to comply with a valid legal process, such as a subpoena, court order, or search warrant, or where there is a lawful request, to disclose information about you. We may also disclose information about you to protect our customers, employees, or property; in emergency situations; and to enforce our rights under our terms of service and policies, in court or elsewhere.

Disclosure of de-identified or aggregated information:

1. Aggregated and de-identified information

We may disclose information collected or received from or about you in de-identified and/or aggregate formats. We may disclose this information to companies that collect and compile consumer data, including those that create reports about what programs people watch.

2. To advertisers and companies that provide advertising services

We may also disclose information with our advertisers and our advertising service providers about when, where, and how (e.g., streaming device, mobile device, or computer) an advertisement was viewed. We may also tell them certain pieces of demographic information about your household. We will not tell the advertiser which individuals or households watched the advertisement. Advertisers, advertising technology companies, and service providers that perform advertising-related services for us and our business partners may use cookies, web beacons, tags, and other technologies to collect information from or about you to tailor advertisements, measure advertising effectiveness, and enable other enhancements. For more information about advertising, see the “Information We Use for Advertising Purposes” section below.

Information We Use for Advertising Purposes

We may use information about you for marketing or advertising purposes in the following ways:

- To provide you with advertising for our Services. We may use information we have collected or received from or about you through use of the Service or from third parties to provide you with marketing information, offers and advertisements for our Services or to exclude you from receiving certain marketing information, offers or advertisements. Our activities with respect to such marketing information, offers and advertisements may occur through our Services or third-party websites and platforms.
- To provide you with more relevant online advertising. We and our advertising partners may also use information obtained about you through your use of our Services or from third-parties, or gathered through cookies and similar technologies, to deliver more relevant online advertising to you across other computers, devices, websites, and online services that you may use (“interest-based advertising”). Advertisers, advertising technology companies, and service providers that perform advertising-related services for us and our business partners may use cookies, web beacons, tags, and other technologies to collect information from or about you to tailor advertisements, measure advertising effectiveness, and enable other enhancements. You may be able to opt out of certain types of interest-based advertising as described below in the “Information Choices and Changes” section.
- To provide others with more relevant advertising. We and our advertising partners may also use information collected from or about you by us or our advertising partners and information we obtain about you from third parties to deliver advertising that is targeted for individuals with similar interests. We may combine aggregated and/or de-identified information to create groups based on actual or assumed shared interests and/or factual characteristics. We also combine information about the programming that our customers watch on the Services with their common interests to help us figure out what advertising may be most relevant.

Network and Information Security

We maintain a variety of safeguards. These safeguards help protect your personal information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Be sure to use a strong password to access your information on our Services, and not one you use for other services.

Information Choices and Changes

Marketing and promotional communications :

You can opt out of receiving marketing and promotional communications from us or manage your preferences at any time through your account settings. You can also opt out of receiving marketing and promotional communications from us by following the instructions included in any such communication that you receive from us. Please note that even if you opt out of receiving marketing and promotional communications from us, you will still receive non-marketing or transactional messages from us, including messages about your account and responses to your inquiries/requests.

Cookies and Do Not Track:

Certain parts of our Services require cookies. You may adjust your device or Internet browser settings to limit certain tracking or to decline cookies, but by doing so, you may not be automatically recognized upon revisiting and may not be able to use certain features of the Services or take full advantage of all of our offerings. Please refer to your device's settings or your Internet browser's "Help" section for more information on how to delete and/or disable your device or browser from receiving cookies or controlling your tracking preferences.

We might not recognize "Do Not Track" requests or headers from some or all Internet browsers.

Interest-based online advertising choices:

In addition to the privacy choices provided by Boost, some of our partners may also provide you with choices about how they handle your information. To understand your choices for receiving more relevant online advertising from members of the Digital Advertising Alliance, members of the Network Advertising Initiative, Trade Desk, and LiveRamp, please review the information below:

1. To learn more about interest-based advertising, and to opt out of collection and use of information about your online activities for interest-based advertising by the Digital Advertising Alliance (DAA) participating companies, please visit www.aboutads.info/choices/. To opt out of targeted advertising through mobile applications, please visit youradchoices.com/appchoices.
2. To opt out of collection and use of information about your online activities for interest-based advertising by Network Advertising Initiative \(NAI\) member companies, please visit www.networkadvertising.org/choices/.
3. To opt out of certain interest-based advertising provided by the Trade Desk you can visit adsrvr.org/.
4. To opt out of personalized advertising delivered by LiveRamp visit liveramp.com/opt_out/.

Even if you opt out, you will still receive advertising from us and third parties. You may also still receive advertising from us or third parties that is customized based on information we've collected or received from or about you or on information about your online activities from third parties that are not DAA or NAI participating companies.

If you would like to change certain Boost account information, you may create an online account and manage your account online. For more information, visit our website.

Third-Party Services and Websites

When you access a third-party service, application, or website, even when doing so through our Services, you should review the privacy statements of the third party to understand what information they may collect and keep. We are not responsible for the practices of such third parties.

You may also choose, when available, to connect your account with third-party accounts, including with third-party social networks. If you share information about your usage of or activities on our Services with such third-party accounts, then the collection, use, and disclosure of such information will be subject to that third party's privacy policies, which may differ from our own. We are not responsible for the practices of such third parties.

- From publicly available sources

Personal information we disclose for a business purpose :

There are a number of circumstances where we disclose personal information to companies who work on our behalf to help us provide the Services. We disclose the categories of personal information described in the chart above to affiliates and other companies to provide the Services; measure the performance of our network and your devices; and for eligibility verification, fulfillment, and administrative purposes.

Your Data Rights:

Residents of California, Colorado, Connecticut, Oregon, Texas, Utah and Virginia have the right to request certain actions with respect to their personal information. Residents of these states may:

- Request that we disclose what categories and specific pieces of personal information we collected about you in the preceding 12 months, the business purposes for such collection, the categories of sources from which we collected the information, the categories of personal information we sold or disclosed for a business purpose, and the categories of recipients of such information
- Request deletion of any personal information about you that we have collected from you subject to certain legal exceptions
- Correct inaccuracies of any personal information we maintain about you
- Opt-out of the sale or sharing of your personal information, or of targeted advertising
- Appeal the denial of any of your access requests

Residents of Oregon may request a list of specific third parties with which we have shared any personal data.

If you choose to exercise these rights, you will not receive discriminatory treatment by us for your exercise of your rights.

How to submit an access, deletion, or correction request:

If you would like to submit a privacy rights request for access, deletion, or correction please contact us at (833-502-6678) or visit our Privacy Portal at boostmobile.com/yourprivacychoices.

How to opt out of the sale or share of personal information, or of targeted advertising:

To opt out of the sale or sharing of your personal information or targeted advertising, please please contact us at (833-502-6678) or visit our Privacy Portal at boostmobile.com/yourprivacychoices.

Verification of your identity:

To process your request for access, deletion, or correction we must be able to verify your identity to a reasonable degree of certainty. To do so, you must provide the required identifying information when completing the online request form or making a request through one of our customer service agents. We will ask you to provide your contact information and an additional identifier based on your relationship with us. Before we process your request, we will match these data points with data points we currently maintain to verify your identity and your relationship with us.

Responding to your deletion requests:

Please note that we may not be required to delete information under certain circumstances such as exemptions for data that is necessary to complete a transaction, detect security incidents, or for certain other internal purposes.

Authorized agent requests:

You can designate an authorized agent to make a request to know, delete, correct, or opt-out on your behalf. When you use an authorized agent to submit a request for access or deletion, you must provide the authorized agent with written permission to do so, and, in certain circumstances, we may ask you to verify your own identity directly with us. We may deny a request from an authorized agent that does not submit proof that they have been authorized by you to act on your behalf.

Limit the Use of My Sensitive Personal Information:

California residents have the right to limit the use of their sensitive personal information. Boost Mobile does not use or disclose sensitive personal information without your consent for purposes other than those specified in the CCPA.

Nevada

Nevada SB 220:

Nevada law permits Nevada residents to make certain requests about how their personal information is shared with third parties or affiliated companies. To make such a request, please visit our Privacy Portal at boostmobile.com/yourprivacychoices.

Boost Family Guard

Boost Family Guard is a service that allows parents or guardians to manage and control their children's online activities and the location of their children's devices. Boost and its service provider, Smith Micro, collect the following information with the consent of the parent or guardian:

Geolocation Data: this tells us the location of your child's device. This information is stored for 7 days.

Profile name and photo: these are used to customize the service.

Internet usage and history: this is used to provide content filtering services. This information is stored for 7 days.

Time zone: this is used to provide the service.

Boost uses the information it collects through Family Guard only to provide the service.

You can revoke your parental consent at any time and delete your child's data either by deleting your child's profile or canceling your Boost Family Guard subscription.

If you have questions regarding Boost Family Guard please contact us at boostfamilyguard@dish.com.
